Baptized In Water FWS 2248, vs. 1 & 3

cleansed by the blood of Christ, our King; heirs of salvation , trusting is promise, faithfully now God's praises we sing.
Baptized in water, sealed by the Spirit, marked with the sign of Christ, our King;
born of one Father, we are his children, joyfully now God's praises we sing.

REAFFIRMING OUR BAPTISMAL COVENANT

Siblings in Christ:

through the sacrament of baptism God's Spirit has been poured out upon water, water that flows freely for all who will receive it, water from the streams of God's saving power and justice, water that brings hope to all who thirst for righteousness, water that refreshes life, nurtures growth, and offers new birth.

Today, we come to the waters, to renew our commitments in each other's presence to Christ, who has raised us, the Spirit who has birthed us, and the Creator who is making all things new.

On behalf of the whole church, I ask you:

Do you renounce the spiritual forces of wickedness, reject the evil powers of this world, and repent of your sin?

We renounce and reject the forces of wickedness that run rampant in our world, have a realm even within our church, and too often reside within ourselves. From these we turn away.

Do you know that Christ has freed you, and that the Holy Spirit has empowered and is empowering you even now?

We claim our God-given power to resist and to reconcile. We ask God to open our hearts to recognize evil, injustice, and oppression, and to strengthen our work to end them through our insistence and persistence.

Celebrating the fullness of Jesus' witness, flowing from the baptismal waters at the river Jordan and the stories of bread broken and shared, do you confess the good news and live as disciples of Jesus Christ?

Believing what Jesus says about God and trusting Jesus' example, we accept the cost and the joy of following the Way. We will live in union with the church, which Christ has opened to people of all ages, races, abilities, ethnicities, and identities.

Will you be living witnesses to the gospel, individually and together, wherever you are, and in all that you do?

We will remain faithful members of Christ's holy church and serve as Christ's representatives in the world.

Will you do all in your power to strengthen the ministries of St. John's United Methodist Church?

We will work as agents of love so that our church may live out our vision to feed people spiritually and physically.

Will you uphold The United Methodist Church with your prayers, your presence, your gifts, your service, and your witness?

Ours is an imperfect and incomplete church, but by our prayers, our presence, our gifts, our service, and our witness, we are moving together toward perfection in love. May God's grace shape us in all that we do!

And honoring the Spirit which prods and delights, will you live the questions of our faith, remaining open to the continuing revelation of our ever-living God?

We will!

Members of the household of God, let us renew our covenant to God and to one another to faithfully participate in transforming our community that in everything God may be glorified in Jesus Christ.

The pastor pours and blesses the water.

✠ GATHERING AROUND CHRIST'S TABLE

Christ our Lord invites to his table all who love him, who earnestly repent of their sin, and seek to live in peace with one another.

Having professed our faith, confessed our sin, and affirmed our commitments to Christ, the Church and to one another, we now gather around the table of Grace.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

SHARING in a BAPTISMAL RENEWAL and HOLY COMMUNION

- All baptized Christians, young or old, are invited to remember and celebrate your baptisms by coming forward and pulling a stone out of the baptismal waters.*
- You may desire to repeat to yourself, "I am a beloved child of God," or "Going forward, I will resist harm." This act of remembrance and reaffirmation is not a rebaptism; what God does once is good for all time.*
- For our guests who are not baptized, we invite you to listen and pray about whether God is calling you to follow Christ through baptism. Please speak to Pastor Lane if you would like to be baptized and/or join the church. You may pull a stone from the water in anticipation of your future baptism.*
- All are welcomed to receive Holy Communion.*
- A piece of bread will be placed in your hands, and you may dip lightly in the cup of juice.*

PRAYER AFTER BAPTISMAL REMEMBRANCE and RECEIVING

Almighty God, who gives us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, welcomes us around the table, and forgives us our sins, strengthen us in all goodness and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
