COVID-19 PRECAUTIONS

Do No Harm, our first Wesleyan rule continues to be our benchmark for all recommendations. Following guidance from the Louisiana Department of Health regarding indoor activities and the virulence of the Omicron variant, we recommend wearing a high quality mask during our worship services.

We look forward to the day when COVID will no longer be a part of our daily lives, until then, let us pray for our world, country, state, parish, and each other.

HELPFUL HINTS FOR FAMILIES WITH CHILDREN

We fully welcome and love engaging children in worship! We include a special Children's Moment each Sunday.

- The St. John's Playground is located in the front of the sanctuary. This is a place for children and their families to worship together, allowing children to more fully participate in the service. As a safety precaution, masks are required in the Playground for everyone ages 2 and older. If you or your child need a mask, some are available in the Playground. More details about the Playground may be found on our website.
- A staffed nursery for infants through preschool is open every Sunday morning and is located next door in our Education/Administration building.
- Changing tables are located in the restrooms in the back of the sanctuary and our nursery.
- Children are welcome to receive Holy Communion, which is served weekly at 8:30 a.m. and on the first Sunday of the month at 11 a.m. Our communion elements are bread and grape juice. Gluten-free elements are also available.
- Sunday School is offered for children starting at age 3 through 12th grade from 9:45-10:45 a.m.

Any questions? Ushers are glad to assist you.

Prelude

Words of Welcome

Rev. Lane Cotton Winn

May this be the day
We come together.
Mourning, we come to mend,
Withered, we come to weather,
Torn, we come to tend,
Battered, we come to better.
Tethered by this year of yearning,
We are learning
That though we weren't ready for this,
We have been readied by it.
We steadily vow that no matter
How we are weighed down,
We must always pave a way forward.

This hope is our door, our portal.
Even if we never get back to normal,
Someday we can venture beyond it,
To leave the known and take the first steps.
So let us not return to what was normal,
But reach toward what is next.

What was cursed, we will cure.
What was plagued, we will prove pure.
Where we tend to argue, we will try to agree,
Those fortunes we forswore, now the future we foresee,
Where we weren't aware, we're now awake;
Those moments we missed
Are now these moments we make,
The moments we meet,
And our hearts, once all together beaten,
Now all together beat.

Come, look up with kindness yet,
For even solace can be sourced from sorrow.
We remember, not just for the sake of yesterday,
But to take on tomorrow.

Call to Worship

Rev. Bernadine Johnson

As we gather to give thanks,
to pray and sing,
to be with others and to be with God,
let us pray:

God of Relationships and God in Relationships,

Lead us now to let loose your grace in all our relationships.

Cultivate within us a bent towards kindness and empathy.

Open our hearts to those with whom we disagree or where the fabric of community is troubled.

Cover us with your peace that our wounds might heal.

Free us from burnout and help us realize our worth.

May we know our limits and live within them.

Feed us by your Spirit, and move us into action towards those most in need.

In the name of the One who embodied love in all his relationships.

Amen.

Prayer of Confession

I Confess

The concern which I lay bare before God today is,
my concern for the life of the world in these troubled times.
I confess my own inner confusion as I look out upon the world.

There is food for all – many are hungry.
There are clothes enough for all – many are in rags.
There is room enough for all – many are crowded.
There are none who want war – preparations for conflict abound.

I confess my own share in the ills of the times.
I have shirked my own responsibilities as a citizen.
I have not been wise in casting my ballot.
I have left to others a real interest in making a public opinion worthy of democracy.
I have been concerned about my own little job, my own little security, my own shelter, my own bread.

I have not really cared about jobs for others, security for others, shelter for others, bread for others.
I have not worked for peace;
I want peace, but I have voted and worked for war.
I have silenced my own voice that it may not be heard on the side of any cause, however right, if it meant running risks or damaging my own little reputation.

Let Thy light burn in me that I may, from this moment on,
take effective steps within my own powers,
to live up to the light and courageously to pray for the kind of world I so deeply desire.

Amen.

Words of Assurance and Pardon

Hear the good news:

Christ died for us while we were yet sinners; that proves God's love toward us. In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!
Glory to God. Amen.

Offering Our Tithes and Gifts to God

*We appreciate your generosity.
Each gift enables us to be a blessing in our community.
You may give online at stjohnsbr.org/give.*

*Doxology

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
praise him, all creatures here below;
praise him above, ye heavenly host;
praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

The Holy One be with you.

And also with you.

Open your hearts to the One who is Love.

We open our hearts to you, Jesus Christ.

Let us give thanks to the One who gathers us together.

We give thanks to the One who welcomes us here.

The pastor tells of God's acts of love and grace.

Therefore we join our voices with your people on earth and all the company of the heavens, proclaiming, with voices lifted:

Holy, Holy, Holy One

God of relationships,

God in relationship,

Heaven and earth are full of your wonder!

Hosanna, among us!

The congregation is seated and the institution of the Last Supper is recalled.

We testified that this mystery of salvation found in Jesus Christ is for all, when we say:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Now as those called and empowered by God let us join with Christ in prayer:

The Lord's Prayer

Sharing in Holy Communion

Everyone is welcome to share in Holy Communion.

Communion will be served using the ancient means of "intinction" with only the pastor and servers touching the elements, or, if you prefer, you may receive pre-packaged elements. Our communion elements are bread and grape juice.

A gluten-free option is also available.

You are invited to stay at the chancel for prayer as long as you desire.

If you are mobility challenged, please let the usher know and someone will bring communion elements to you.

Prayer after Receiving

Rev. Johnson

O God,

By the bread of heaven and the cup of life,
you make us one body.

Bind us together by your Spirit that we might live into your hopes for us, a community centered in Christ and rich in compassion, kindness, courage, and care.

In all our relationships, may it be so. Amen

LET US DEPART IN LOVE

Call to Action

We joyfully welcome all those who wish to become members of St. John's and invite you to come forward during the singing of the closing hymn.
