11 A.M. WORSHIP CELEBRATION

All Are Welcome

Today we continue in our worship series “Upside Down Living,” where we look back at some of the familiar parables Jesus told by looking at them from a slightly different perspective than perhaps we’re used to. In today’s Parable of the Wheat and Weeds, we’ll consider God’s love for us, even though there is a mixture of wheat and weeds within us.

Whether you are a guest or member, we invite you to register your attendance (scan the QR code in the pew) so we know you’re here and we can get to know you better.

- Changing tables are located in the restrooms in the back of the sanctuary and in our nursery.
- Children are welcome to receive Holy Communion, which is served weekly at 8:30 a.m. and on the first Sunday of the month at 11 a.m. Our communion elements are bread and grape juice. Gluten-free elements are also available.

Call to Worship

Tommie Reinhardt

In a world so quick to point out our faults and failures,
we worship a God of grace.

Even when we are too hard on ourselves,
always pressing towards perfection,
we worship a God of grace.

Though many see the world as either/or, black and white,
without a shade of gray in between,
we worship a God of grace.

God is in the midst of all of life and all that we experience,
so gather in, my friends.

You are welcomed.

You are accepted.

For we worship a God of grace.

Thanks be to God for a love like that. Amen.

Our Social Creed

Since the beginning of the Methodist movement, people called Methodists have spoken to the issues of the day as an expression of the Wesleyan commitment to social holiness.

Continuing the Wesleyan tradition of social holiness today, let us recite our Social Creed:

We believe in God, Creator of the world; and in Jesus Christ, the Redeemer of creation. We believe in the Holy Spirit, through whom we acknowledge God's gifts, and we repent of our sin in misusing these gifts to idolatrous ends.

We affirm the natural world as God's handiwork and dedicate ourselves to its preservation, enhancement, and faithful use by humankind.

We joyfully receive for ourselves and others the blessings of community, sexuality, marriage, and the family.

We commit ourselves to the rights of men, women, children, youth, young adults, the aging, and people with disabilities; to improvement of the quality of life; and to the rights and dignity of all persons.

We believe in the right and duty of persons to work for the glory of God and the good of themselves and others and in the protection of their welfare in so doing; in the rights to property as a trust from God, collective bargaining, and responsible consumption; and in the elimination of economic and social distress.

We dedicate ourselves to peace throughout the world, to the rule of justice and law among nations, and to individual freedom for all people of the world.

We believe in the present and final triumph of God's Word in human affairs and gladly accept our commission to manifest the life of the gospel in the world. Amen.

Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning,
is now, and ever shall be,
world without end.
Amen. Amen.

A Companion Litany to Our Social Creed

Companion Litany

God in the Spirit revealed in Jesus Christ, calls us by grace
to be renewed in the image of our Creator, that we may be one in divine love for the world.

Today is the day God cares for the integrity of creation, wills the healing and wholeness of all life, weeps at the plunder of earth's goodness.

And so shall we.

Today is the day God embraces all hues of humanity, delights in diversity and difference, favors solidarity transforming strangers into friends.

And so shall we.

Today is the day God cries with the masses of starving people, despises growing disparity between rich and poor, demands justice for workers in the marketplace.

And so shall we.

Today is the day God deplores violence in our homes and streets, rebukes the world's warring madness, humbles the powerful and lifts up the lowly.

And so shall we.

Today is the day God calls for nations and peoples to live in peace, celebrates where justice and mercy embrace, exults when the wolf grazes with the lamb.

And so shall we.

Today is the day God brings good news to the poor, proclaims release to the captives, gives sight to the blind, and sets the oppressed free.

And so shall we.
