

Then the Lord said to Moses,
"I'm going to make bread rain
down from the sky for you.
The people will go out each day and gather just enough for that day."

11 A.M. WORSHIP CELEBRATION

All Are Welcome

As we get closer to the holidays, we are reminded how central food is to our lives. For the next two weeks, we are revisiting some of the grandest food stories found in scripture. With God, food isn't just important – it is Holy! Today we read the story of God providing manna and quail in the wilderness for the Israelites as they wandered in search of the promised land for 40 years. Ours is a God who hears us, responds to us, and provides for us.

Whether you are a guest or member, we invite you to register your attendance (scan the QR code in the pew) so we know you're here and we can get to know you better.

Words of Welcome

Rev. Lane Cotton Winn

Introit

*We Prepare Our Hearts to Worship

Richard Damberg

From the bustle of the world and the silence of our wilderness, we pause together for worship.

At times, we can be a grumbling people, quick to focus on the lack and the gaps.

Yet in love, God, you listen to our cries and provide for us.

Impatiently, we are a searching people, craving peace and purpose.

And with patience, God, you offer us hope and sustain us.

Help us to be a thankful people, recognizing your love for us in all its abundance.

Through your presence, God, you turn us towards you and nourish us.

In this time of worship, let us open our hearts and be filled.

We Pray for Our Veterans

Pastor Lane

We remember our Veterans today, and commend them to you for their bravery, their patriotism, and their honor.

We give you thanks, O God.

For the sacrifices made, including those who gave their very lives in that service.

We give you thanks, O God.

Grant that those who serve today may be kept in your everlasting love and protection.

Give comfort and encouragement to their families.

For those veterans whom we neglect and who suffer mental illness or physical challenges because of their service.

We ask for your comfort and mercy, O God.

For all the ways in which you call us to love beyond our division, hurt, and pain.

Keep us true to that call, O God.

Let us pray...

Lord of all, you long for a time when all nations will be ruled with justice and a world where everyone lives in safety and harmony. Until that time when swords are beaten into plowshares and the wolf and the lamb eat together, we give thanks for veterans who have served their country with honor and courage.

We remember the sacrifices made by members of the military and their families. We know that they endured long seasons apart from loved ones, the disruption of moves and deployments, the stress of being sent to regions engulfed by violence, the repercussions of physical, spiritual and moral injuries.

Where the pain of those injuries persists, bring healing. Where the memories of that trauma are harrowing, grant relief. Where the grief of those losses threaten to overwhelm, grant hope.

We pray, gracious God, for an end to war and for the new earth where there will be no need for military might. But now, we ask your blessing upon our veterans and those closest to them that they may know the gift of your presence and the peace that passes understanding. Amen.

HELP MAKE A CHILD'S CHRISTMAS BRIGHTER

Opening Doors is offering us a chance to help brighten Christmas for children from 2 of our neighborhood schools, Wildwood Elementary School and Gardere Community Christian School, through their new mission: Neighborhood Friends. During Coffee Time today and next Sunday, you will have an opportunity to choose a student or students and purchase gifts for them. You will receive instructions when you pick your student(s).

SNACKS FOR COFFEE TIME

We need snacks for Coffee Time. Many thanks to those of you who have answered the calls that we sent out. Now that we are loosening the wrapping requirements, if you have a new recipe you would like to try out, I think Coffee Time is the place to do it! If you have a favorite recipe you haven't made in a while, I think Coffee Time is the place to bring it. We will always welcome individually wrapped sweet or salty snacks.
