CHECK-IN & PRAYER REQUESTS

In the waters of baptism, Jesus stands with the people and hears the words we all long to hear: “You are my beloved.” Baptism reminds us that we are deeply loved by God and continually invited to return—again and again—to lives shaped by justice, mercy, and courageous faith. Our “belovedness” calls us to live boldly in the world.

Make A Difference This Week

Thank you for your continued generosity in supporting The Shepherd’s Market. We will continue to emphasize the First Sunday of each month as Grocery Bag Sunday, and a grocery cart will remain in the Narthex for donations anytime. Most-needed items will be shared in the newsletter and the bulletin. Your generosity helps ensure our neighbors have access to food during uncertain times.

This week’s most needed items: peanut butter, snacks, and pasta. Ongoing needs also include cereal, condiments, drinks, and household items (ex: detergent, paper products, hygiene items).

Spirit of the Living God

Invitation to Worship*

Judy Gilmore

Come to the waters where God meets us as we are.
We return to God – seeking grace and longing for renewal.
In the wilderness, a voice calls us to prepare the way.
We open our hearts to transformation and new life.
At the river, God names us beloved.
We remember our baptism and our calling.
Come, worship the God who says, “You are my child;
with you I am well pleased.”
We worship with joy, with hope, and with courage. Amen.

Baptized in Water

We Name Our Need For Grace*

Judy Gilmore

Merciful God, we confess that we have not always lived as your beloved children.
We have turned away from your call to love, from your way of justice and mercy, and from the courage you offer us.
We have been silent when we should have spoken.
We have been comfortable when faithfulness called for risk.
We have held tightly to what you meant for sharing.
Forgive us, we pray. Turn us back to you.
Renew in us the grace of our baptism, that we may trust your love, follow your Son, and walk in the power of your Spirit. Amen.

Words of Grace and Forgiveness*

Judy Gilmore

Hear the good news: The God who calls us back is the God who claims us as beloved.
In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven, restored, and renewed.
Thanks be to God. Amen.
May the peace of Christ be with you.
And also with you.

We Reaffirm the Covenant of Baptism

Pastor Lane

We remember our baptism, renounce sin, and reaffirm our faith in Jesus Christ. We give thanks for God’s grace and hear God’s call to live as beloved children, empowered by the Spirit.
(This ritual can be found on page 34 of The U. M. Hymnal.)

People of God, remember this truth:
We are God’s beloved children.
Claimed by grace,
and renewed by the Spirit.
Called to live with courage and compassion,
and to follow Christ in all that we do. Amen.

We Remember Our Baptism*

All are invited to this time of remembrance.
*Come touch the baptismal waters and remember that you are God’s beloved child. You may find it meaningful to silently say to yourself, “I am God’s beloved child.”
If you’d like, you may remain near the altar to pray.*

We Pray Together

Judy Gilmore

I am no longer my own, but thine.
I am not my own self-made, self-reliant human being.
In truth, O God, I am Yours.
Put me to what thou wilt, rank me with whom thou wilt.
Make me into what You will.
Make me a neighbor with those whom You will.
Put me to doing, put me to suffering.
Guide me on the easy path for You.
Guide me on the rocky road for You.
Let me be employed by thee or laid aside for thee,
exalted for thee or brought low for thee.
Whether I am to step up for You or step aside for You;
Whether I am to be lifted high for You or brought low for You;
Let me be full, let me be empty.
Let me have all things, let me have nothing.
Whether I become full or empty, with all things or with nothing;
I freely and heartily yield all things
to thy pleasure and disposal.
I give all that I have and all that I am for You.
And now, O glorious and blessed God,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
thou art mine, and I am thine. So be it.
So be it.
And the covenant which I have made on earth,
let it be ratified in heaven.
And may I always remember that you,
O God, and I belong to each other. Amen.
