

Advent

An invitation to begin again

*Sunday, December 15, 2024
11 a.m. Worship Celebration*

All Are Welcome

The story of Christmas would not have been possible if Joseph and Mary had not entered into the drama with God. Each in their own ways, give us examples of hope in action. They have a lot they could lose. Yet, they choose radical acts of hope, and the world is better for it. Drawing encouragement from their stories, may you find the courage to choose hope and join God in continuing this beautiful narrative of love and redemption.

Whether you are a guest or member, we invite you to scan the QR code to register your attendance so we know you're here and we can get to know you better.

GUEST INFORMATION

We are glad you've joined us and hope you feel at home here. Whoever you are, wherever you are on your faith journey, you are welcome. Our ushers are happy to assist you in anyway. Restrooms are in the Narthex, located in the back of the Sanctuary.

Please take home a copy of our Welcome Brochure located in the Narthex or view it online at: stjohnsbr.org/welcome-brochure.

HELPFUL HINTS FOR FAMILIES WITH CHILDREN

We fully welcome and love engaging children in worship! We include a special Children's Moment each Sunday.

- The St. John's Prayground is located in the front of the sanctuary. This is a place for children and their families to worship together, allowing children to more fully participate in the service. More details about the Prayground may be found on our website.
- A staffed nursery for infants through preschool is open every Sunday morning and is located next door in our Education/Administration building.
- Changing tables are located in the restrooms in the back of the sanctuary and in our nursery.
- Children are welcome to receive Holy Communion, which is served weekly at 8:30 a.m. and on the first Sunday of the month at 11 a.m. Our communion elements are bread and grape juice. Gluten-free elements are also available.
- Sunday School is offered for children starting at age 18 months through 12th grade from 9:45-10:45 a.m.

Advent Affirmation

In this weary world, we sing of joy.
In this fragile world, we lift each other up.
In this beautiful world, we look for God.
In this tender world, we hold onto hope.
This is the invitation of faith.
So in this time of worship, may we sing, lift up,
look for, and hold onto our with-us God.
With hope and joy in our hearts, let us begin!

Lighting the Candles of Hope, Peace, & Joy

Carol Jean Barrow

In a weary and worn world, how do we begin again?
Where do we start?

Let us begin with trust.

Let us begin with tenderness.
Let us begin from a place of vulnerability and hope.
Let us allow joy to spill over into our lives.

Yes, let us begin with joy.

(The candles of hope, peace, and joy are lit.)

Today we light the candles of hope, peace, and joy.
May these lights remind us to dream dreams.
May these lights fill us with hope and possibilities.
May the warmth of these lights inspire us to action.

And let us do it with joy!

Advent Wreath Song

Sung to the tune of Breathe on Me, Breath of God

Kindle this flame of joy.

May it burn bright and true.

Lighting the way that is of God,
the journey we pursue.

Prayer for Illumination

Molly Means

O God,
As we come to your scripture this morning,
we pray: help us begin again.
Clear the distractions from our minds.
Center us in this space.
Move through the protective barriers
we surround ourselves with and speak to us here and now.
We are listening. We are hopeful. Amen.

*Words of Wisdom

Matthew 1:18-25

For the Word of God in scripture,
for the Word of God among us,
for the Word of God within us,
Thanks be to God.

*Affirming Our Faith

Molly Means

We believe in a God who gives us reason to hope,
a God who fills our nights with stars,
who follows winter with spring,
who dwells with us and among us.

We believe that this God has dreams for creation, dreams of justice like a mighty stream
and swords that will be beaten into plowshares.
Therefore, we push cynicism aside.
We risk vulnerability.
We hold onto hope.

We believe that today is a new day.
Today, we have reason to hope.
Today, we are forgiven.
And the same will be true tomorrow.
Thanks be to God for a love like that.
Amen.

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father
and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning,
is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen. Amen.

Announcements

LIMITED OFFICE HOURS

During Christmas Week and New Year's Week we will have limited office hours. Both weeks the office will only be open on Thursday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Friday from 9 a.m. to noon. The regular office week will resume on Monday, January 5 at 9 a.m.

STAFF APPRECIATION GIFTS

An annual Christmas tradition at St. John's has always been saying thank you to our staff for all the work they do to make worship, ministries, programs, and events at St. John's possible.

If you would like to participate in thanking them, please put "Staff Appreciation" in the memo line of your check or on the offering envelope, if cash. You may also make your gift online at www.stjohnsbr.org/give (Select the "Staff Appreciation" Fund).

Deadline for staff appreciation gifts is Tuesday, December 17.

CELEBRATE CHRISTMAS WITH A GIFT OF LOVE AND DEDICATION

This Christmas season, St. John's is offering two special ways to celebrate and honor your loved ones:

Poinsettia Dedications. Dedicate a poinsettia in honor or memory of a loved one for $35.

These beautiful plants will adorn our worship space on Christmas Eve and may be taken home after our 6 p.m. Christmas Eve worship service.

Mission & Vision Dedications. For those looking to give a meaningful and lasting gift, consider making a $35 donation to the Mission & Vision of St. John's United Methodist Church in honor of someone special. With this gift, you will receive a keepsake card to present to your loved one, letting them know a donation has been made in their name.

Both Poinsettia Dedications and Mission & Vision Dedications will be listed in the Christmas Eve bulletins. Your gifts help support the work of St. John's, spreading Christ's love in our congregation and community.

To participate, you may complete the online form: stjohnsbr.org/christmasdedications or, if you prefer, printed forms are available in the narthex and office. Deadline to order is December 18. You may pay with a check/cash to St. John's UMC with "Christmas Dedication" in the memo line or you may pay online at stjohnsbr.org/give (Choose the "Other" Fund and then choose "Flower Fund" for Poinsettia Dedications or "Christmas Dedication" for Mission & Vision Dedications.)

Thank you for helping make this season one of generosity and love.

Advent & Christmas Season at St. John's

TODAY UWF CRAFT & BAKE SALE FOR LOCAL MISSIONS

Swing by the Family Life Center throughout the morning, starting at 8:30 a.m., on Sunday, December 15 to purchase delicious holiday baked goods and take home some wonderful handcrafted Christmas gifts. All proceeds will go to local missions supported by the United Women in Faith (UWF).

ST. JOHN'S MUSIC MINISTRIES PRESENTS "THE MESSAGE OF CHRISTMAS"

Join us on Sunday, December 22 at 8:30 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. for a worship celebration of music and poetry called "The Message of Christmas." Our Praise Team, Chancel Choir, Alleluia Ringers, and Music Makers will share seasonal songs, and woven among the beautiful music will be readings of scripture and poetry.

THE LONGEST NIGHT SERVICE

For those who have experienced loss, the holidays can be a particularly painful time, stirring up grief in acute ways. We know that many approach this season with mixed emotions. With the busyness of this season, it's hard to find time to slow down and reflect on what matters most in life. If this resonates with you, we invite you to attend our Longest Night worship service, which is designed to provide space for prayer, reflection, and remembrance. Join us Sunday, December 22 at 5 p.m. for this quiet, reflective service.

For families with children who wish to attend the Longest Night Worship service,

Connor & Betsy will be leading an alternate activity upstairs in Mrs. Marilyn's classroom. We will do some crafts, play some Christmas games, and watch Christmas movies. If you feel you need designated time and space to feel the emotions that have been weighing heavy on your heart this season, please take this opportunity to do so.

CHRISTMAS EVE WORSHIP

Both of our Christmas Eve worship experiences will be uplifting, celebratory, and meaningful in its own unique way. Join us for one or both!

Nativity Service at 4 p.m. - This year, our family-oriented Christmas Eve service will feature our children creating a live nativity with scripture readings by our youth. We will also sing carols, celebrate Holy Communion, and experience the Christmas story through the eyes of our young people.

Candlelight Service at 6 p.m. - This later service is a traditional service featuring carols, beautiful music, a Christmas message from Pastor Lane, Holy Communion, and Silent Night by candlelight. Join us at 6 p.m. for a time of worship, community, and celebration of the birth of Jesus.

ONE WORSHIP SERVICE ON DECEMBER 29

We will come together for one combined worship service on Sunday, December 29 at 10 a.m. to sing Christmas carols, take "hymn requests," from those in attendance, hear a brief message by Natalie Cooper, a certified lay servant, and celebrate Holy Communion. Children are invited to bring a new Christmas Toy or Gift for a special blessing during the Children's Moment. There will be no Coffee Time or Sunday School on December 29.

EPIPHANY LESSONS & LAUGHTER SERVICES ON JANUARY 5

To close out the Christmas season and celebrate Epiphany, these services of joy and connection on Sunday, January 5 will amplify the good news of this holy season through song and laughter! We will also receive our 2025 Star Words, a spiritual practice that provides a word for guidance and reflection for the year ahead. We will resume our regular worship times of 8:30 and 11 a.m. as well as Coffee Time and Sunday School on January 5.
