Pharaoh's nightmares became Joseph's blueprint for saving lives. God's dreams aren't about self-help – they are about community care. When we give of ourselves, we're helping turn vision into provision, building a granary of grace so our church can bless many in every season.

DREAM SUNDAY – OCTOBER 12

What dreams might God be calling us to in 2026 and beyond? Join us next Sunday as church leaders guide us in exploring the possibilities that open when our community listens and responds together, imagining the future God invites us to create through our giving, service, and shared life.

Make Me a Channel of Your Peace

Invitation to Worship*

Richard Damberg

We gather as God’s people, called to dream.
God gives us dreams of hope and wholeness.
Our dreams may feel big, uncertain, or bold,
yet God invites us to trust, prepare, and act with love.
Come, let us worship the God who gives us dreams,
and makes them come alive in us!

For the Bread Which You Have Broken

We Name Our Need for Grace*
Holy God,
You plant dreams within us –
visions of hope for our lives,
our neighbors, and our world.
Too often we dismiss them as foolish.
We turn away when they seem too costly.
We cling to fear that there will not be enough.
Forgive us, O God.
Forgive the ways we resist Your Spirit’s imagination.
Open our hearts to dream with You again.
Give us courage to live into Your future with hope. Amen.

We Hear Words of Grace & Forgiveness*
Hear the good news: God’s mercy is deeper than our fear, stronger than our doubt, and wider than our imagination.
In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven and made new.
Thanks be to God!
May the peace of Christ be with you.
And also with you.

Praise God from Whom all Blessings Flow

We Prepare for Communion*
The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them up to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.
The blessings of God, across time and generations, are shared,
concluding with:
With all creation, we join the song of praise:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest. (3x)

GIVING

U.M. Hymnal #94

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest. (3x)
The congregation is seated as we recall the Last Supper concluding with:
And so, with grateful hearts,
we remember Christ’s saving love
and offer ourselves to God’s dream of a new creation,
as we proclaim the mystery of faith:
Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.
Hosanna in the highest. (3x)
We pray for the Spirit's presence in this holy meal concluding with The Lord's Prayer.

We Pray the Lord's Prayer

U.M. Hymnal #895

We Celebrate in Communion*
All are welcome to receive Communion.
We serve by intinction (bread dipped in juice); servers handle the elements. Pre-packaged & gluten-free options are available.
You may remain at the chancel to pray. If you need communion brought to you, please let an usher know.

We Pray Together
Holy God,
we give You thanks for this holy meal,
for the bread that nourishes us,
and the cup that reminds us of Your love poured out for all.
As we go from this table,
send us as dreamers and doers,
filled with hope, courage, and compassion.
May the Spirit guide our steps
so that our lives reflect Your vision of justice, mercy, and peace.
Help us to see possibilities where others see limits,
to act with generosity where fear tempts us to hold back,
and to join with one another in making Your dreams real in our world. Through Jesus Christ, who makes all things new, we pray. Amen.

We Receive This Week’s Call To Action
We joyfully welcome all those who wish to become members of St. John’s and invite you to come forward and stand with Pastor Lane during the singing of the next song.
