CELEBRATING THE ABUNDANCE OF GOD'S LIVING WATER

Sunday, October 30, 2022

8:30 A.M. WORSHIP CELEBRATION

All Are Welcome

Today is Commitment Sunday, and we welcome you to worship! The Book of Revelation paints a portrait of a diverse gathering, singing God's praise, whom Christ will guide to the springs of the waters of life. Our faith promises us that there will come a time when we will no longer have to do the backbreaking work of well-digging to taste Christ's goodness. We give to the church as a way of creating a glimpse of that kind of world, where all have comfort, grace, and truth.

Whether you are a guest or member, we invite you to register your attendance (scan the QR code in the pew) so we know you're here and we can get to know you better.

Surely God is my salvation;
I will trust, and will not be afraid,
for the Lord God is my strength and my might;
God has become my salvation.

With joy you will draw water from the Wellspring of Life.
And you will say on that day:

Give thanks to the Lord, call on God's name;
make known his deeds among the nations;
proclaim that God's name is exalted.

Sing praises to the Lord, for God has done glorious things;
let this be known in all the earth.
Shout aloud and sing for joy!

Holy God,
You breathed upon the waters of Creation
and poured forth your grace.
Refresh us continually with your living water.
As the Scriptures are read and the Word is proclaimed,
may we draw from the well of faith and drink deeply of Christ's promises of hope, grace, peace, healing, and encouragement - all signs of the abundance of God. Amen.

A Charge to All Stewards

Pastor Lane

As people of faith, we are called to be God's stewards – those who sacrifice, serve, and dig the well together, to ensure that St. John's is a place where all find hope, grace, peace, healing, and encouragement.

Stewards give from all aspects of their lives. As we accept this call, we each become a living example of Christ's gospel, proclaiming faith through all that we do and all that we give.

As it is written in I Peter 4:10, “Like good stewards of the manifold grace of God, serve one another with whatever gift each of you has received.”

On this Commitment Sunday, a time when we celebrate the commitments each of us makes as stewards of St. John's United Methodist Church's mission and ministries, I ask you now, do you promise to live into this life of stewardship together, by faithfully supporting the ministries of the church by your prayers, your presence, your gifts, your service, and your witness?

If so, please answer, “I do.” I do.

Litany of Commitment

Paul Ivey, Margaret Sprunger, John Toney

As people of faith, we seek the Wellspring of Life, where Jesus Christ's Living Water flows in abundance.

The work of faith requires much of us, so we dig deep...

into our pockets and bank accounts,
into our schedules and energy reserves,
into our hearts and minds
into our trust in the God we love.

The life of faith offers much to us, so we draw often...

from the peace and joy of worship,
from the love and friendship of this congregation,
from the promises of Holy Scripture,
from the grace of our God, who loves us.

Jesus invites us to drink freely from the Wellspring of Life.

The Living Water given by Jesus never runs dry.

We gladly give back to Him our whole lives,
our time, our talents, and our financial resources.

O God, we ask your blessing on this, your church,
as we seek to live out your mission and vision for St. John's.

Bless also our pledges, our investment in your future,
that through us, your Wellspring of Life will continue to flow.
Amen.

Doxology

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
praise God, all creatures here below:
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Praise God, the source of all our gifts!
Praise Jesus Christ, whose power uplifts!
Praise the Spirit, Holy Spirit!

The Great Thanksgiving

A Service of Word and Table III

The United Methodist Hymnal 15

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The pastor tells of God's acts of love and grace.

And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven we praise your name and join in their proclamation:

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest!
Blest is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

The congregation is seated and the institution of the Lord's Supper is recalled.

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

The pastor invokes the present work of the Holy Spirit and concludes:

Through your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy church, all honor and glory is yours, almighty God, now and for ever.

Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Sharing the Bread and Cup

Everyone is welcome to share in Holy Communion.

Communion will be served using the ancient means of "intinction" with only the pastor and servers touching the elements, or, if you prefer, you may receive pre-packaged elements. Our communion elements are bread and grape juice.

A gluten-free option is also available.

You are invited to stay at the chancel for prayer as long as you desire.

If you are mobility challenged, please let the usher know and someone will bring communion elements to you.

Communion Response

Jane Walker

Friends, we have sat an hour by the well,
and shared in Communion with the Lord.
We have tasted and seen that God is good.
How shall we respond?

We offer gratitude to the Lord for this bread and this cup,
and for all that Jesus has done for us.

Drawn to the well by your love,
we are now sent to pour ourselves out for others.

In the name of Jesus Christ,
who is our Wellspring of Life,

Amen.

Pour Out Ourselves for Others
