The story of Mary and Elizabeth, as they both face celebrations and challenges, shows us the importance of having relationships that can serve as sanctuaries for us – ones where we can bring our joys, fears, and full selves, no matter what we may be facing.

Make A Difference

As the year comes to a close, we are deeply grateful for your generosity. Gifts received by December 31 help us meet our commitments, sustain our ministries, and serve our neighbors with care and compassion. Thank you for making a difference.

Invitation to Worship* Betty Schroeder

Come with your hope and your doubt,
your wonder and your weariness.
We come seeking God’s presence and each other’s blessing.
When God draws near, hidden promises begin to stir.
We come, ready for hearts to leap and for faith to awaken.
Where encouragement is spoken, courage grows.
We come to rejoice together in the God who fulfills what God has promised.
This is a place for expectant spirits and mouths that bless.
Come, Emmanuel and fill us with your love.

We Greet One Another with Joy and Peace*

We Light the Advent Candle Stephanie Rockco
Today, we light the candle of Love. God makes room in impossible places, filling the world with new possibilities.
In Christ, love takes flesh and dwells among us.

(We light the candles of Hope, Peace, Joy, and Love.)

As we light this candle, we celebrate the love that knows no bounds.
Come, Lord Jesus, Love Incarnate, into our hearts.

We give thanks for God’s grace, hear Jesus’ words spoken at the reminded that there is always room at God’s table for all.

We Pray Together Betty Schroeder
God of love and refuge,
we thank you for meeting us at this table with grace.
Having been fed by your grace,
may we become sanctuary for one another.
Teach us to make room –
room for stories that are unfinished, room for grief that has no timeline,
room for joy that overflows,
room for people who long to belong.
Send us into this day bearing your light,
until all know they are loved and held by you. Amen.
