Unity in the COMMUNITY

February 21 10:00 a.m. Join us for a joyful worship service with the children and families of the Charlie Thomas Head Start Center, celebrating the relationships St. John's nurtures year-round. A simple sandwich lunch with our community friends will follow in the Family Life Center, hosted by United Women in Faith.

Tonight we gather for Ash Wednesday, marking the beginning of Lent with prayer, reflection, and the imposition of ashes. Together, we step into this sacred season with humility and hope, remembering that even from dust, God is always shaping new life.

Serve by Preparing Sandwiches

We're looking for some helpers to make sandwiches for Unity in the COMMUNITY lunch on Saturday, February 21. Please come to the FLC between 8:00 a.m. and 8:30 a.m. to help with preparing lunch or stay after the 10:00 a.m. program to help with cleanup.

Invitation to Worship*

Rev. Larry Norman

If you have days when you feel a little bit lost and a little bit found,
then you are in the right place.

If you have days when you are desperate for rest and eager to grow,
then you are in the right place.

If you have days when your prayers could be both shouts and silence,
then you are in the right place.

God meets us here, in the messy middle of our lives.

So may we bring our full selves into this service and into this season.

With God's help, may it be so.

Let us worship our all-loving God.

"Even now, declares the Lord, return to me with all your heart." (Joel 2:12)

We Read God's Word

A Responsive Reading From Psalm 51

Create in me a clean heart, Of God,
and put a new and right spirit within me.

Enfold me in the arms of love,
and fill me with your Holy Spirit.

Restore in me the joy of your saving grace,
and encourage me with a new spirit.

Then I will teach others your ways,
and prisoners of fear will return to You.

O Gracious God, open my lips and my mouth shall sing forth your praise.

For you do not want sacrifice;

You delight in our friendship with you.

A sacrifice most appropriate is a humble spirit;
a repentant and contrite heart,
is the gift You most desire.

O most gracious and compassionate God,

melt our hearts of stone,
break through the fears that lead us into darkness,
and guide our steps into the way of peace.

Change My Heart, O God

We Name Our Need For Grace

Rev. Kathy Schaffhauser
Holy God,

we confess that we do not always return to you fully.

We give you the manageable parts of our lives,
but keep the rest guarded.

We move quickly past what is uncomfortable.

We avoid what feels uncertain.

We hide the parts of ourselves that feel too messy, too fragile, or too unfinished.

Yet you call us –
all of us.

You love us –

all of us.

Hold space for us, O God,
even when we struggle to hold space for ourselves.
Forgive us. Slow us down.
Turn our hearts back toward you.
In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Rev. Kathy Schaffhauser

We Hear Words of Grace & Forgiveness

Friends, hear this good news:

God meets you exactly where you are.

Not when you are polished.

Not when you are certain.

Not when you are finished.

God meets you in the dust.

In the questions. In the longing.

In Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

We are claimed.

You are held in mercy and love. Rest in that grace.

Thanks be to God. Amen.

Thanksgiving Over the Ashes

Rev. Larry Norman

From Genesis 3:19, we read: "...you are dust, and to dust you shall return."

"Together, let us pray:

Expansive God of grace, you have created us out of the dust of the earth. Dust of the earth whose very elements originated from exploding stars in an ever-expanding galaxy. We are limited and mortal, yes—and we are so much more. Grant that these ashes may be a sign to us, that in our limited nature, we are also embraced by your eternal and expansive grace. Bless these ashes that they may remind us, we are humble dust abundantly loved by You. Amen.

We Receive a

Blessing with Ashes

Rev. Larry Norman

You are invited to come down the center aisle to receive the sign of the cross on your forehead. If you would like, you are welcome to kneel at the altar rail for as long as you wish for a time of personal prayer before returning to your seat.

We Pray for Others

Rev. Larry Norman

*As we pray, our response will be:
Lord, in your mercy,
hear our prayers.*
